

E-CONNECT

Legislative Updates and Breaking News from The Moore Center

March 10, 2014

Upcoming Events

It's a busy season! Here are some of the upcoming events that may be of interest to you.

- Plans and Dreams after High School. A free event for families, students, and professionals interested in the process of transition. Friday, March 21, 8:30 AM to 12:30 pm. Claremont Savings Bank Community Center, 152 South Street, Claremont. Register Here
- Manchester Area Autism Spectrum Support Group. Monday, April 7, 6:30pm. The Moore Center, 195 McGregor Street, Suite 400, Manchester. Dennis Bradley, Director of Atech Services at Crotched Mountain, will be speaking about developments in diagnosis, etiology, and treatment. Register Here
- Parent Leadership in Special Education Training Series. April 1, 8, 15, 6:00-8:30 pm. Parent Information Center, 54 Old Suncook Road, Concord. NH Connections' Parent Leadership Training series provides an opportunity for parents and others to gain leadership skills and learn to work effectively with school districts. Space is limited. Call 224-7005 for more information or to register.
- Tons of Training Opportunities! Check out the huge variety of classes available through NH Bureau of Developmental Services here
- New Hampshire Vocational Rehabilitation is looking for input. This is a great opportunity for you to provide feedback about the services you or a loved one access through VR. Survey
- Partnering for Strength Conference. Saturday, March 29. Grappone Conference Center in Concord. Rae Hoffman, CEO of PushFire and parent of a child with a disability, will share the 11 things she learned along the way and her unique journey of strength and resilience. The conference features a special Youth Session by youth/for youth for people ages 14—25 with disabilities/special health care needs. Register Here

The Moore Center
Creating opportunities for a good life.

If you are having issues with transportation or other Managed Care services, contact

Mary Gaye Grizwin
Bureau Chief, MCM

Operations

NH DHHS

603-271-9534

Or, talk to your case manager and let us help you. Let us know when things are going well too!