The Moore Center Legislative Updates

Please Join us in Concord on March 13!

The hearing is on Monday, March 13 in Concord, in Representative's Hall in the State House, from 3:00 – 5:00 and 6:00 until everyone has been heard.

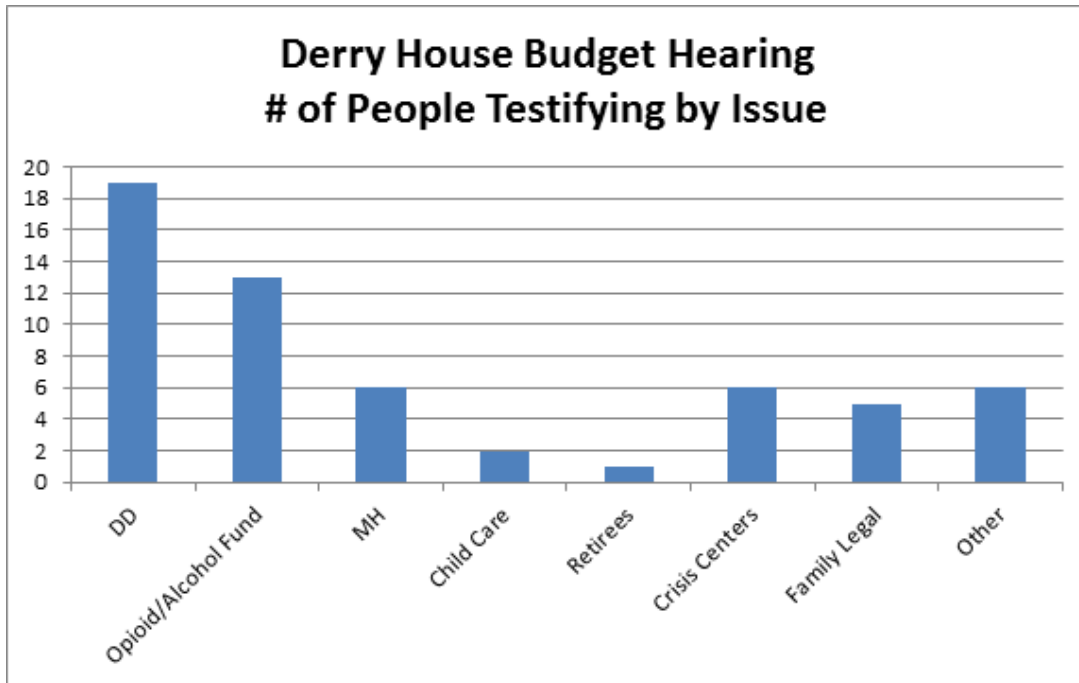

This is the time to share why you depend on services. Testimony should be under one minute and the more people who testify, the more powerful the message.

Want to attend but not testify? Attending and signing in is also important!

Can't attend but still want your voice heard? Email your written testimony to Barbara.didona@moorecenter.org and we will make 26 copies of it and bring them to Concord for you.

Questions? Email or call Barbara Didona (206-2832).
We hope to see you in Concord on Monday!

Look how many of us turned out for the Derry hearing on March 6! Keep up the good work!

Advocates plead for money at NH budget hearing. Hikes not enough to ease crises

By Nicholas Golden ngolden@eagletribune.com Mar 7, 2017

DERRY — Not enough beds. Not enough space. Not enough money.

That was the message members of the New Hampshire House Finance Committee heard Monday night when they held a regional hearing in Derry to begin work on a House budget following Gov. Chris Sununu's presentation of his $12.1 billion plan.

More than 100 advocates came, asking for additional support for problems that they say lack adequate funding. READ MORE
